Anderson Township Residents Chosen as Extras in Disney's Secretariat

Contributed By Jordan Kellogg | Community Press | ShareThis

Tommy Galvin and Catherine Lennon, both board members of Beechmont Players, Inc., the arts organization in residence in Anderson Township, spent three days last week filming at Keeneland as paid "extras" in Disney's Secretariat, a movie about the legendary Thoroughbred.

Re-enacting the 1973 Belmont Stakes, where Secretariat claimed his Triple Crown, both actors were decked out in 1970s attire suitable for June 80 degree weather during Autumn's first real chill. Galvin portrayed a reporter and Lennon an upper class Belmont fan in scenes starring John Malkovich and Diane Lane. Definitely a once in a lifetime opportunity, Lennon and Galvin both agree "we were thrilled to have the experience and certainly have a new appreciation for the behind-the-scenes work it takes to set up a 20 second shot!"

Lennon and Galvin can both be seen "behind-the-scenes" of Beechmont Players, Inc.'s regional premiere of Unnecessary Farce, October 16-24 at Anderson Center. Galvin is the Lighting Designer and will be doing lighting execution and Lennon is Assistant Producing and doing make-up. Tickets can be purchased at www.beechmontplayers.org or by calling 513-233-2468.
